A text that introduces secondary students to a wide range of films available on video. The language of film is explored in the films selected, along with the subject matter and techniques used by the film-maker. The films are presented with both preview and review questions, matters for discussion, examination of techniques used, writing and drama activities, extension work and a list of related films. Includes a glossary of film credits and an index of issues covered. The authors have considerable experience in the field, both within the education arena and professionally.
