

Thunder And Storm: The Haverfield Incident, 2005, 501 pages, Rick Ainsworth, 0977037606, 9780977037605, VRA Publishing, 2005

An entertaining novel set in the U.S. Navy in 1963 and 1964, Thunder and Storm: The Haverfield Incident offers the reader an insight into a period of American history which has been neglected; the era between the innocence and heroism of the Greatest Generation, and the wrenching changes of the civil rights and Viet Nam protest movements. It is a story of a young mans journey to maturity, of the lessons a young generation needs to learn, of the dignity and value of the United States Navy and its traditions and history.
